DAILY TRIBUNE.

Thursday Morning.....April 8, 1858

The 15th Cleaned Out.

The 15th published not cleaned out. The State, City, County and Town alike have agreed to cleanse with their services in the management of their affairs. Tuesday's work was the finishing job. We have labored somewhat earnestly and zealously to secure this result and are not a little gratified now that it is at hand. But we disclaim all hostility to men on account of the smallest of birth, now, as we intend, shall ever be. We have repeatedly done honor to Irishmen who are born in Ireland that they have exalted the opposition of the majority. They have gained it by their abuse of the Freedom which they enjoy. We but express a feeling common among Americans of all parties, when we say that the Irish are the cause of their own troubles. Their little respect for the rights of others than themselves; their clannishness which makes the bad cause of a single countryman a good cause among all the race; their propensity to disorder and turbulence, manifested chiefly in times of political excitement, and this in an exceedingly offensive manner; their disposition to follow without reason any leader among them who has the power of utterance and effrontery to fill the place that he assumes; their love of office when once hectoringlyobtained, and which is too often gratified at the expense of political frugality and fair dealing; their uniform support of the Slave Power in all its phases, and their more than suspected obedience as all appearances to the political commands of an unpopular hierarchy—have made the Irish name offensive with politically considered. We regret that many good men of that nationality are suffering reproaches that they do not deserve, in consequence of the ill-doing of their countrymen; but in politics men deal in generalities, and make few or no exceptions. Such men it is their power to make such changes in the prevailing sentiments and practices of Chicago, when they say judgment, that the present popular verdict may be reversed. They should hesitate respect for order and law; respect for the minor rights of others which the law takes no care of; independence of action in political matters, and more care for abstract justice than for the clamor, extractor, or obligations of unworthy countrymen; emancipation from the control of office-seekers, from the tyranny of our American despotism, and from the political guidance of the priesthood. In a word, let the Irish divide according to their convictions, and support the men and measures that their consciences accept, and the reproach will be taken away. Until they do that, they must be content to remain in the pit which they have dug for themselves; by some whatever the changes and combinations hereafter, there is no probability that the old Constitution will be restored. Intelligent and patriotic men among the Irish themselves, will rejoice that this is so. They are tired of the ascendancy of the turmoil by which they were disgraced.

The "Times" Translated.

The Home translates from the Chicago Sunday Zeitung—a German weekly paper of a conservative political character—a piece of prowess in which the Union Prayer Meeting at Metropolitan Hall is entertained, and credits it to the Sunday Daily Staats Zeitung, the German Republican organ of this city. The translation is a sentence of the original article in the German tongue; but good or bad, it in no way reverse the sentiments of the Sterling Republican sheet to which it is attributed. Since its prevailing religious sentiment sprung up, the Staats Zeitung has treated its democratic friends with all proper respect; and would be loath to fairly translate its comments upon the history, progress and manifestation of the moral movement, the readers of that sheet would, no doubt, be astonished to see how greatly they have been deceived by the false coloring which it has seen fit to use.

Poor Old Buck.

In over a period so thwarted by the representatives of a turbulent and rebellious people? The Army bill, the pet measure of the Administration, ended with as little ceremony as sweet sonny boys use when they salute a pavement-stone by the tail and snap off its head by a single fist of the hand; the Locomotion bill, endorsed to the Executive by the introduction which it met and by the tears and troopers' oaths which have been shed in its defense—the cup of balm for the healing of the nation's plague, and the ulcer to which it was to be applied is not yet healed; the Volunteers' bill is safely antilaced in its passage through the House; and now the Deficiency bill, appropriating ten millions, which Mr. Cobb hasn't got for the expenses of "our army in Utah," is undergoing what sailors call a rasse—its provisions are corrected, its side lanyard, its sentiments diminished! Poor Old Buck looks astound, and wonders where the hitch is, his friends meanwhile hold up their hands in holy horror at the indignity to which His Majesty is subjected. The King can do no wrong; but the Commons are rebellious. But the worst has not come. That crown of glory beneath which all that remains of James Buchanan was to honor buckled, will never sit over that old face, nor take the cocoon twist out of that lazy look. The conspiracy for wrecking Cuba upon Spain will not succeed. It will have the fate of its predecessors in infamy. Mark that—poor Old Buck.

The Town Elections.

Our records in reference to the Town Elections preserve none. A clean sweep has been made, and every Republican candidate elected. The returns (unofficial) will be found in another column. It will be noticed that Pearsons and O'Malley were both candidates for re-election in the North Town, but with disqualifying results.

Discounts.

The bill abolishing Discounts as a State, with new amendments in the lower House, passed the House yesterday by a vote of 46 to 8.

Failure of Banks of France.—The New York Herald says that French commercial houses have withdrawn their correspondents in this country from bills on London instead of Paris, they have no confidence in the stability of that dynasty.

Supervisory Celebration.

Monday.—The 70th anniversary of Marietta, was celebrated by a speech from Hon. Thomas Ewing delivered in the presence of the survivor of the party of 48 who arrived here in 1787, was present. 700 were born in the first settlement of Marietta and Belpart, and 1,000 now living white natives of Marietta. Speeches were made by Drowned on a Railroad.

April 7.—The laborers on the railroad works here, are astonished at a riot which occurred to-day. Seven were seriously injured.

Insurance Agents.

Chicago, C. W., April 7.—Sylvester Dana, who resisted service of Insurance Agents, was attached on his way to the trial, by two men, who claimed to be Commissioners of Insurance. Dana was brought before a Justice, who refused to issue a writ of habeas corpus. Dana was then taken to Toronto, and the case will be tried to-day.

Fire.

Rochester, April 7.—The extensive flouring mills of Hollister & Co., were destroyed by fire this morning. Loss $100,000; insured for $50,000.

Fire.

Cincinnati, April 7.—The extensive flouring mills of Hollister & Co., were destroyed by fire this morning. Loss $100,000; insured for $50,000.

OLD FOLK'S CONCERT THIS EVENING.—The second of the "Old Folk's Concerts" comes off at Metropolitan Hall this evening, and, should the weather prove pleasant, will doubtless attract a very crowded audience. As at the previous concert, the performers will appear in the costumes of an hundred years ago, and will go on and off the stage in such a manner as each one feel he distinctly lost by the audience. The concert will be under the direction of Mr. Blakely, and Messrs. W. H. Currie and J. M. Hubbard have volunteered and will appear.

The following is the programme, or title of the pieces:—New Jerusalem; Exhortation; Ocean; Portland; David's Lament; Newburgh; Resin; Coronation; Ode on Science; Montgomery; Greenfield; Freedom; Mortality, or Chesterbury New 8, Majesty; Anthem for Easter; Old Hundred. Mr. Hubbard also plays a violin solo, arranged by himself.

The audience is requested to rise, at the close of the Concert, and join the Choir in singing "Old Hundred." The programme also states that "after the intermission, the singers will march upon the stage to the tune of "Auld Lang Syne," played by the Orchestra, and the audience are requested to unite in singing the song while the performers are coming on the stage."

This concert is given for the benefit of the Industrial Schools of the city, and no more worthy object can be found. Those who were unable to obtain seats, or even standing room, at the last concert, should not fail to attend this one as it is well worth double the price of admission.

Alleged Forger Arrested.—P. M. Case, alias Col. Vassar, alias A. L. Aiken, who has been held in custody since Saturday, the 27th ult., at St. Louis, by C. P. Bradley, the celebrated detective officer of this city, awaiting the arrival of Governor Bissell's requisition, was brought in this city yesterday, and locked up in our jail. The Colonel, as he loves to style himself, came, it is alleged, to this city, a few weeks since, and tried to pass forged drafts of large amounts on Burch & Co. and Aiken & Norton, bankers, and only failed in getting them cashed, for want of some one to "identify" him, according to bankers' rules. He finally succeeded, however, in passing a $50 check, purporting to be that of E. M. Chase, of the American Transportation Company, on the clerk of the Adams House in this city, and for this he was followed and arrested. The Colonel is a fine, of prepossessing manners, good address, well attired, and about 45 years of age. He is said to be one of the Cold S. Khanis gang, and was mixed up with the Martha Washington affair. He was once sentenced to 5 years servitude in the Pennsylvania penitentiary for forgery, but was pardoned out after 1½ years incarceration. During that period his wife is said to have procured a divorce from him, but after he was six months out of prison, they were remarried.

Cook County Medical Society.—At the annual meeting of the Cook County Medical Society, held April 6th, 1858, at the Lecture Room of Rush Medical College, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Dr. A. Fisher, President; Dr. E. Andrews, Vice President; Dr. C. E. Aiken, Secretary. Delegates were elected to attend the American Medical Association, to be held at Washington, in May; also Delegates to attend the State Medical Society. The Standing Committees were then appointed for the ensuing year, after which the Society proceeded with the regular order of business.

Discharged.—A few days ago we noticed the arrest of Mr. Wadley, an agent for a New York House, on a charge of perjury. The charge was based on an affidavit made by Mr. Wadley in the U. S. District Court for the arrest of an alleged debtor to the concern. The case came up before U. S. Commissioner Hoyne yesterday, and resulted in Mr. Wadley being discharged.

Pocket Picked.—On Tuesday evening, at the Trinity Church Fair, given in Metropolitan Hall, a lady had her pocket picked of a wallet containing $70.

At Mrs. Mozart's concert, last Saturday afternoon, a lady had her pocket picked of a wallet containing $22 in bank bills.

There is no doubt that our city is infested with a gang of adroit pickpockets, and we trust the police will succeed in discovering and punishing them.

Trinity Church, Chicago.—At the annual meeting of their congregation, held in the church, on Monday morning, April 5, 1858, the following named gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing year, viz.:

Senior Warden—L. P. Hilliard.
Junior Warden—D. J. Ely.
Vestry—John M. Wilson, James L. Reynolds, H. O. Stone, S. Hawks, James L. Morgan, William H. Adams, James C. Fargo, C. V. Wiley.

Grace Church.—The following persons were chosen as officers of Grace Church at the annual election held on Easter Monday:

Wardens—J. W. Chickering, E. W. Zimmermann.

Vestrymen—David S. Lee, J. S. Johnston, E. H. Williams, J. Talcot, James Miller, H. L. Wilson, S. S. Haney.

Treasurer—J. S. Johnston.
Secretary—S. S. Haney.

Persons desiring pews can make selections from the few remaining, by applying at J. S. Johnston's, corner of Randolph and Lasalle streets, where a plan of the church may be found.

An Organ for the Warren Avenue M. E. Church.—We learn that the members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, corner Wabash avenue and Harrison street, contemplate having an organ in their beautiful church edifice. The young men and ladies of that church have formed an association for the purpose of raising the necessary funds. At the meeting held on Wednesday evening, the following members were appointed officers, viz.: Mr. Walker, President; Mr. Lunt, Treasurer; Mr. LeRoy Swampstead, Secretary; Members of the Executive Committee, Messrs. Walker, Lunt, Swampstead, Hook, Walker, Nadlie, Walsh, Mrs. Beman, Mrs. Phillips, Miss Everett, and Miss Frisbie. Volunteers offered to take books to receive subscriptions. We hope that the young members of that church will succeed in their laudable undertaking.

The Mysterious Counterfeiting Affair.—On Tuesday evening last a man stated to Marshal Rehm that he knew of a man in the city who had a large quantity of counterfeit money in his possession, and offered to show the man to the officers. As agreed upon, the stranger pointed out the alleged counterfeiter, and the officer followed him to the Briggs House, and arrested him. On searching his baggage $20,000 of uncurrent and counterfeit money was found. There was $6,000 of counterfeits on the Hamilton Bank, Selinate, R. I., $5,000 counterfeit on the Metropolitan Bank, Washington, D. C., and the balance was uncurrent money of the Ship Builders' Bank and the Bank of Milford. Upon this evidence the accused was detained for examination.

Since the arrest of the prisoner, who gives the name of S. L. Norris, it has been ascertained that he came to this city as a witness in a case pending in the U. S. Court, and that attempts were made to bribe him to get out of the way. Norris states that while here, he purchased, as a matter of speculation, the money found in his possession, supposing it to be genuine, and that he did not know that $12,000 of it was counterfeit. He also states that a few nights since, he made the acquaintance of three men, one of them a well known black-leg, that they induced him to go on a spree and drugged his liquor, and that when he came to himself, he discovered his valise had been broken open and a considerable quantity of the money abstracted. He also affirms that the complaint was made against him in order that those who robbed him might have an opportunity to get away before he could proceed against them. The case is now undergoing investigation, and the mystery will doubtless be solved in a day or two.

Recorder's Court.—In this tribunal yesterday, Grand and Petit Juries were empannelled for the term. Judge Wilson professed his charge to the Grand Jury with some pointed and caustic remarks relative to professional jurymen, and remarked that he saw several familiar faces in the panel before him. This caused an evident amusement among the jurors, and finally several of the "familiar faces" came forward and asked to be excused from serving, and the Judge discharged them, and their places were supplied by those less familiar with the precincts of the Grand Jury Room. Judge Wilson also alluded to the manner in which indictments are often procured for the gratification of private malice, and without any intention to prosecute them. His Honor recommended the Jury not to find indictments against persons who have not had examinations before committing magistrates, except when approved by the State's Attorney.

Most of the day was spent in trying unimportant civil cases, hearing motions and taking default. The following is a list of the Grand and Petit Jurors:

GRAND JURY.—J. L. Palmer, Foreman; J. M. Loomis, H. B. Pike, W. M. Fuller, T. R. Smith, Hiram Langley, M. G. Eggerton, Charles B. Dix, J. J. Ruby, Louis G. Maynoon, Benj. Thompson, W. T. Chambers, H. Chapin, S. B. Childs, Jas. C. Blake, E. Hyde, L. W. Montgomery, J. H. Lathrop, Charles Hodgson, W. H. Bolton, James L. Brown, Geo. W. Colby and Ivar Lageon.

PETIT JURY.—William Wood, Stephen Buell, Wm. Talt, A. Abby, Spencer Warner, Joseph Lines, O. Wheaton, William Roberts, Frank Wells, N. Jackson, E. C. McLeod, J. W. Merrill, John Turner, O. S. West, J. M. Burr, Geo. C. Smith, C. Charleston, A. C. Burt, R. J. Paulen, H. D. Whittington, Charles Sweet, E. Nash, J. H. Wells, and C. W. Bowman.

Prance Coffin.—John Barry, a resident of Bridgeport, was brought up for illegal voting on Tuesday. He was committed for trial in default of $500 bail.

Harmon Smith, who said "I am one of the immortal teachers of the North West," was fined $12 for getting drunk. He is a school teacher at Lacon, in this State.

For being drunk and disorderly, Henry McGraw was fined $10; Thomas Dailey and William Morgan $12 each; Richard Hildreth $10 and 60 days in Bridewell.

"We come again with songs to greet you."

Old Folk's Concerts.—Messrs. Editors: The committee of arrangements for the Old Folk's Concert, deem it just in order a few facts in relation to the concert held on Tuesday evening, March 30, in Metropolitan Hall.

The general impression is that the Hall was crammed full to and by some that the committee did wrong in selling tickets to more persons than could be accommodated in the Hall; while the fact is, there were not as many in the hall as it will seat comfortably, being but less than two thousand persons, including the choir and orchestra.

Mr. Gale, the proprietor of the Hall, informs us that there are full numbered seats in the body of the room and gallery, to say nothing of those on the platform.

The committee had no intention of seeing more as many as were there, and consequently did not provide ushers; and as the Hall will easily accommodate four persons were compelled by three, and in some cases, as I am credibly informed, by two persons, to occupy a single seat. It was not only uncomfortable such, did not realize the importance of making room for those who were standing. At our concert this evening, measures will be taken to provide seats for all, and no more tickets will be sold than can be thus accommodated; but it will be considered to leave because they cannot gain admission, the purchase money will be refunded them in exchange for their tickets, at the ticket office, or in the store of E. S. Wells, or in the room of the committee in charge of the concert.

Hoping that the above explanation will be satisfactory to the friends who were in view of the fact that a few entered the Hall, and in their haste to get seats, forgot to hand their tickets to the doorkeeper. The public will be duly advised of the next concert, of the two concerts, with a statement in full, of which those so many interest those who have not given already contributed to the fund of the "Ladies' Industrial School Association" of Chicago, through the medium of the press.

Our consent to eight millions as "radical change" of programme, is only natural, but the pieces and, among others, that "Old Time hundred and welcome" song, "Auld Lang Syne," which the audience is invited to join in singing, during which we expect more than one to "go off in a swoon" at the "tune of the times," or "invoked to mind," for the first memory of the past, it is indeed blessed.

There will also be a decided change in costume.

A gentleman's dress, worn in the days of William Penn; another, a lady's, actually worn 175 years ago; Another, a bridal dress, 85 years old; and another, a lady's dress, 75 years old, will make their appearance on the stage. There are no fancy exceptions, or even the present fashion of the evening, but only a few of which the writer happens to know.

E. C. Wilson.

Spring 1859.

Our business continues and the returns of Chicago are repeatedly invited to call and examine the large and very superior assortment of the clothing and furnishing goods for the spring trade, which we are now receiving from our manufactory in this city, and from the East.

In spite of disaster and panic, our stock will be found in its usual good, substantial character in style, quality and variety to that of any other house in Chicago, and at prices somewhat below former rates.

The Greatest Discovery of the Age.—It seldom occurs, that we notice, under any circumstances, patent medicines, considering it anything of the kind, but we have a peculiarity against most of them. The article appears in another column of the advertisements of Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative in the last column of the bottom of third page of this paper. We are free to say we have not anything of the kind, but from our knowledge of the ingredients of which it is composed, and from the statements made by those who have used it, we are not only willing to say that it is a most extraordinary article, without question, and gives a glossy and natural appearance. We have seen those who have used it, and they are much pleased with it. See notice advertisement.—[Missouri Republican. Sold by all responsible Druggists.

Wheeler & Wilson Manufacturing Co.'s
SEWING MACHINES,
FOR FAMILIES AND MANUFACTURERS,
GEO. B. CHITTENDEN, Agent,
155 Lake street, Chicago, Ill.
[Third Floor Opposite.]

To Geo. Chittenden, Agent:—Sir—We have sold the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine, and supplied it to every description of family sewing, and find it fully all, and more than we claim for it. It sews every kind of material, working equally well upon silk, woolen and cotton goods; sewing, quilting, gathering, hemming, &c., with a speed and strength unequalled by any other machine now in use.

We have no hesitation in recommending it to our friends as an unprecedented and very desirable labor-saving machine.

COMMERCIAL.

CHICAGO WHOLESALE MARKET.

Office of the Chicago Daily Tribune, Thursday, April 8, 1858.

Receipts of produce by railroad and canal, yesterday, April 8th, were:

Flour, bbls	300	Grain, bush	2,500
Wheat, bush	16,000	Corn, bush	15,000
Oats, bush	1,000	Barley, bush	1,000
Rye, bush	1,000	Hogs, No	200
Corn, bush	2,000	Cattle, No	25
Barley, bush	1,000	Sheep, No	100

FREIGHTS.—The brig Corinna was chartered for wheat to Oswego at 12½c, a low rate, but vessels either here or for sept cash or beg engines and very little profit seems to offer by the case. The schooner G. Andrew passed Mackinaw on the way to Chicago, and the schooner St. Joseph to Kingston by private terms. Vessels commenced arriving this morning from the lower lakes; the Welland Canal is also open, and propellers are ready to start for here. Receipts by canal are not likely to be large for a time yet, as grain propers for higher rates are not good.

FLOUR.—Sales of 1,000 bbls, worth, nothing were 300 bbls Southern Extra Mills (spring rates), and 50 bbls "Family" do at $5.25. Small sales to city trade at 4 bbls better.

☞ A correspondent in the Montreal Gazette suggests the purchase of the grounds on which the famous Crystal Palace was erected, as a site whereon to construct a grand depot within that city for the terminus of the Grand Trunk Railroad. He says: "That secured and the G. T. Directors consented, front roads could be had across the whole, according to the very landscape of the town, and could be entered from the Bonsecours Market, or the Rue St. Lambert." The writer recommends "the preservation of Sodge-somewhat damaged during the Great Nursery property (with fields if they cannot otherwise) capable of accommodating, at once, four of the largest locomotives or sailing vessels that regularly, or are about to frequent, this port of Montreal."

DAILY TRIBUNE.

NO. 21, SOUTH CLARK STREET.

CITY OF CHICAGO

Tuesday Morning.....April 1896

Will they stand firm?

We see no indications as yet of any backing down on the part of the members of the House who voted for the Chittenden amendment; on the contrary, we are assured on all sides that they will stand firm, and refuse what the Governor calls a "compromise." It will be remembered that the Governor's proposition was to cut down the appropriations to $1,500,000, and to allow the Auditor to issue warrants for the remainder of the claims, which would be paid as fast as the revenue would permit. This would have left the State in debt to the amount of $1,000,000 at the end of the year, and would have made it impossible to pay the appropriations for the next two years without a special session of the Legislature. The Governor's proposition was, therefore, a most dangerous one, and the House has done well to refuse to accept it. The Governor has, however, the power to veto the bill as it now stands, and it is probable that he will do so. If he does, the House will have to decide whether it will pass the bill over the veto, or whether it will accept the Governor's proposition. The latter course would be the wiser one, as it would avoid the danger of a deficiency, and would not cripple the State Government. The Governor has, however, declared that he will veto the bill if it is passed as it now stands, and the House should not allow itself to be bulldozed by him. It has the power to override the veto, and it should exercise it. The Governor has no right to dictate to the Legislature, and the House should show him that it is not to be intimidated by his threats. The bill as it now stands is a just one, and the House should stand by it.

Equal and uniform taxation laws.

The action of the Illinois Association of Assessing Officers, which met in this city last week, in favor of equal and uniform taxation laws, is a step in the right direction, and one which will be heartily approved by all who have the interests of the State at heart. The Association has not yet formulated any plan for securing such laws, but it has appointed a committee to do so, and it is to be hoped that the committee will be able to report a plan which will be practicable, and which will secure the end desired. The present system of taxation is a disgrace to the State, and it is time that it was changed. The Association of Assessing Officers is composed of men who are familiar with the defects of the present system, and who are competent to suggest a remedy for them. It is to be hoped that they will do so, and that the Legislature will act upon their suggestions.

Illinois Democracy.

The Democratic State Convention, which met in this city yesterday, was a harmonious one, and the ticket nominated by it is a strong one. The platform adopted by the Convention is a sensible one, and the Democrats of Illinois have reason to be proud of it. The Democratic party of Illinois has always been the party of honest money, and it is to be congratulated upon the fact that it has declared itself in favor of the gold standard in the platform adopted by the Convention. The Democrats of Illinois have also declared themselves in favor of the Chicago plan of municipal government, and have thus placed themselves on record as opposed to the present system of misgovernment in Chicago. The Democratic party of Illinois is, therefore, entitled to the support of all those who desire honest money and honest government, and it is to be hoped that it will receive it.

Republican Supreme Court Judges.

The Republican Supreme Court Judges who have been renominated by their party have been in office for a number of years, and have made excellent records. They have rendered many important decisions, and have shown themselves to be able lawyers and upright judges. They have been conservative men, and have not been carried away by the popular craze for class legislation which has been so prevalent in this State for the past few years. They have been careful to keep within the limits of the law, and have not allowed their decisions to be influenced by the passions of the hour. They have been men of whom the people of the State may well be proud, and they deserve the support of all those who desire to see the laws of the State properly administered. The Republican party has always had the honor of having on the Supreme Bench of the State men who were a credit to the bench, and the present Republican Judges are worthy successors of their predecessors. The Republican party has always been proud of its Supreme Court Judges, and it has good reason to be proud of the present Republican Judges. They are men who have the confidence of the people, and they deserve it. They are men who will be renominated and elected by the Republican party, and they will be a credit to the party which honors them with its confidence.

Democratic Platform.

The Democratic State Convention which met in this city yesterday adopted a platform which is a very good one, and which is in many respects a sensible one. The platform declares in favor of the gold standard, and in favor of honest money, and it is to be hoped that the Democrats of Illinois will stand by it. The platform also declares in favor of the Chicago plan of municipal government, and in favor of the Australian system of voting. The Democrats have thus placed themselves on record as opposed to the present system of misgovernment in Chicago, and as favoring a change. The Democrats have also declared in favor of the Australian system of voting, and have thus placed themselves on record as favoring a system which will prevent the buying of votes, and which will secure a fair election. The Democrats have also declared in favor of the Chicago drainage canal, and have thus placed themselves on record as favoring the completion of the canal. The Democrats have also declared in favor of the Illinois Central Railroad paying its taxes, and have thus placed themselves on record as favoring the collection of the taxes due from the Illinois Central Railroad. The Democrats have also declared in favor of the Illinois and Michigan Canal paying its taxes, and have thus placed themselves on record as favoring the collection of the taxes due from the Illinois and Michigan Canal
